Lofty Quest

Bring your galoshes to the High Altitude Quest and Tourney, to be held June 19-21. This year we hope to beat the Midsummer Nightmare of 2 inches of ice, cold hail and "Chilling Rains."

This year the quest autocrat will be Larke. He requests the assistance and participation of all those planning on coming up. If you are interested in being part of the "background color," i.e. monsters, thieves, merchants, etc., please contact him at the number provided below. The quest will be explained in future issues of the Atlantian Herald.

However, we can tell you the quest will begin at 10 a.m. MSCA Time, and finish around 4 p.m. MSCA Time. Here is a sneak preview.

The Quest of the Five Keys

Legend tells of a time past when five keys were made and entrusted to a young man living in the Shire of Shadowskeep. A bizarrity struck. The man and the keys were lost. Now the past calls to us, saying, a swamp creature keeps a key and may know where all the others lie.

Please, help us to find the keys and solve the riddle of the missing man ... and his keys.

Contact Larke if you would enjoy helping with the quest. There will be plenty of prizes offered.

After the quest, everyone is invited to a potluck feast and revel. Freydis Unraed is feast autocrat. Please call so she may place your name by the appropriate course. A special award will be given for the Most Period Dish and Presentation. Call Fryedis Unraed for further details.

When the moon rises, the bardic will begin. All fighters must participate. Yes, this is a forced bardic for those planning to fight in Sunday's tourney. A prize will be given to the best fighter's entry. Also, in all fairness, two more prizes will be awarded: one, for best amateur, and two, for best veteran. Also, the possibility of other awards at the judges' discretion may enliven the bardic even more.

Due to the 10,000' altitude, special considerations should be made. Alcohol must needs be kept to a minimum ... always remember one beer equals a six-pack at this height. Plus the roads are dangerous if you've been drinking. Camping is suggested since the nearest motel is 14 miles away, Campfires will be allowed upon autocrat approval. This is private land, so please bring wood, and where possible, camp stoves and barbecues. Because of the wood shortage, we encourage everyone to bring wood for themselves and possibly an extra bit for the bardic as well.

There will be trench toilets on the site. Once again, be prepared.

This year we will be asking $2.50 as a site fee per person, with children under 12 free.

If you have any questions, please call the autocrats.

Lynna von Drachenberg (Randy Mills), 505-982-8832.

Freydis Unraed (Marta Reinhold), 505-292-6340.

Larke (Daniel Wickersham), 505-292-6340.

THE COURTESANS GUILD of CAERTHE cordially invites you to THE SECOND ANNUAL COURTESANS' CHAMPION TOURNEY and REVEL

To be held on Saturday, June 20, 1987

The competition will begin at 12:00 noon in Platt Park (1500 S. Logan St., in Denver) and will consist of a heavy weapons list, as well as the gentlemanly arts of hand kissing, flirtation, and courtessie. A prize will be given to the winner of each individual contest.

The evenings' festivities will begin at 6:30 P.M. with a buffet supper at the home of Mistress Bernice (3495 Newland, in Wheatridge). Meat pies, salads, breads, and desserts will provide an ample repast.

Following supper, the competition will continue with a bardic contest (and more), with the overall CHAMPION being named at the end of the evening.

Reservations for the supper are $5.00 per person. Please use the form provided and make all checks payable to THE BARONY OF CAERTHE. Please mail by no later than June 13, 1987.

College Midsummer

The College of St. Golias presents a Midsummer Tourney and Feast June 20 and 21, AS XXII (1987) at Esoondita Lake. The event will begin at 9 a.m. on Midsummer's Eve (June 20).

My lords and ladies, it is my pleasure to announce that on the eve of Midsummer and Midsummer's Day, I, Jagonam Poing d'Eclair, Lord Abbot, will hold a Midsummer's Tourney, Revel and Bardic Festival. My brother/mother Hagne Schnemachen will prepare a bountiful feast to be served on Midsummer's Eve, about dusk.

On Midsummer's Eve, the events shall start, with armor inspection commencing soon after, 9 a.m. An announcement will soon follow with information about the day's events. Those events shall be as follows:

MIDSUMMER'S EVE

*A challenge tourney, the rules for which shall be announced on site.

*Workshops in dance, performance of songs, stories, and the use of instruments.

*An evening court

*A Grand Feast. Menu includes savory breads, salads and pottage, roast beast and curried vegetables on rice, fruits, cheeses, and some sweets.

*A bardic festival around the fire with prizes awarded to meritorious performers.

MIDSUMMER'S DAY

*10 a.m.: Armor inspection for tourney finals. During the finals, for those not interested in fighting, there will be more music and also gaming.

*Tourney finals

GENERAL NOTES

*For smalls, games may be played both days, and it is possible for them to attend the workshops.

*Pets must be leashed. NO EXCEPTIONS.

*The site is wet, but I ask that period containers be used only!

*Unfortunately, I must charge a tax of all who come, a $5 feast fee and a $2.50 site fee. Smalls feast for $3, and have a site fee of $1.

*The site opens Friday, June 19, at 5 p.m., and closes Sunday, June 21, at 5 p.m.

For more information contact:

Main Autocrat: Lord Jagonam Poing d'Eclair (Jim Gilson), Box 3336 CS, Socorro NM 87801, 505-835-1980.

Feast Autocrat: Hagne Schnemachen (Nancy Gilson), 109 Eaton, Socorro NM 87801, 505-835-1929.

HERALDRY SYMPOSIUM

The Known World Heraldic Symposium, A.S. XXII, will be held in the Kingdom of the West from Friday, June 26 to Sunday, June 28, 1987. To date several activities have been tentatively scheduled, including a Laurel meeting, seminars and classes on items of heraldic interest, and a banquet eith an heraldric theme. The symposium will be held on the campus of the University of California-Berkeley. Housing will be available through the university in rooms on campus; some crash space is also available. The weekend selected for the event is immediately after the Western June Crown Tournament (June 20-21) and just before the West Coast Regional Science Fiction Convention (Westercon 39, July 2-5), both of which will be held very close to Berkeley. For more information please contact the autocrats: Mistress Alison von Markheim (415) 420-1860 or Mistress Eilis O'Boirne (415) 486-0633.

ARTS & SCIENCES MEETING/WORKSHOP

There will be an Arts & Sciences Meeting/Workshop on Wednesday, June 17, A. S. XXII, at 7 PM at 622 Whedbee. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend.

Battle by Moonlight

Come one, come all to the one and only Moonlight Tourney II, a must for all lunatics and their friends. The site is located in the cool and lovely Lincoln National Forest — Queens at Pickett Hill turnoff. The site opens at 4 p.m. on Friday, July 10. The event begins at 4 p.m. on Saturday, July 11.

The site fee is $5 per person and $2.50 for smalls under 12. The area is discreetly wet, but we also suggest you bring water. There is water available, but it is located about a mile away. (Ed. Note: A mile is a long walk when you are really thirsty. Take water.)

Some of the scheduled luna-activities are:

Dragon fighting

Urchin races

Fulk Fulkerson's Pun Contest

Staying up with Freya

Anything else we can come up with at the last minute

And last, but not least -- Tourney by Moonlight

Lunar Autocrat: Fulk Fulkerson, 505-885-0964

Sane Person: Lady Renna of Battersea, 505-885-3382

Anlieplic Dun Plans Games

The Shire of Anlieplic Dun will be holding its Summer Games Weekend on July 25 and 26, 1987. The weekend will be fun and challenging. The shire members haven't made detailed plans yet, but some of the competitions will be archery, axe-throwing, spear and javelin throwing, barding, a quest and games. They are hoping to chose a champion to be called the shire's "Defender of Dragons."

The site will be Grad Flats (the old Defender site), and there will be a $5 per person site fee that will cover both days. More information will appear in upcoming issues of the Outlandish Herald— stay tuned!

TOURNAMENT OF ROSES

The Rose Riffraff and the House of Dusty Rose wish to invite all to a weekend of chivalric competition on July 18 and 19. The event is being jointly sponsored by the Shire of Aarquelle and Caer Galen. It will be held in the San Isabel Forest west of Pueblo, CO. The actual site will be determined once the snow has melted off the area. We have narrowed it down to two very beautiful sites!

As was done at the tournament jointly sponsored by the Rose Riffraff and the House of Dusty Rose at Outlandish last year, every fighter will be required to bear a favor into the tournament. To the lady or lord of the most chivalric fighter will go a rose quartz necklace and a baldric embroidered with roses. To the most chivalric fighter will go a silver heraldric rose. To the fighter who wins the tournament and his/her lord or lady will go an ounce of silver and two silver bracelets.

Further details on costs, location, etc., will be published after the snow melts enough for us to choose between the two sites currently available. For more information, contact either Lord Giovanni (303) 329-3877, or Mistress Demelza (303) 449-2479.

2nd Annual St. Sebatian's Archery Tournament

On July 26, A.S. XXII, the Incipient Canton of Hawk's Hollow will host the Second Annual St. Sebatian's Archery Tournament. The site is Northglenn High School at the football field. The fee again will be $1.00 per round shot. The tournament will be an I.K.A.C. event.
